Mission

R-Ladies is a worldwide organization whose mission is to promote Gender Diversity in the R community.

- Why? Underrepresentation of women in the R community
- Where? Lack of female leaders, package developers, conference speakers, conference participants, educations, or users.

Please note all references to 'W/women' and 'F/female' in this presentation are used fully inclusively w.r.t trans women, genderqueer women, and non-binary people who are significantly female-identified.

Mission

R-Ladies is a worldwide organization whose mission is to promote Gender Diversity in the R community.

Why? Underrepresentation of women in the R community

Where? Lack of female leaders, package developers, conference speakers, conference participants, educations, or users.

Goal Achieve proportionate representation by encouraging, inspiring, and empowering the minorities currently underrepresented in the R community.

How?

- Supporting the R enthusiasts who identify as an underrepresented minority to achieve their programming potential.
- Building a collaborative global network of R leaders, mentors, learners, and developers to facilitate individual and collective progress worldwide.

Rules & Guidelines

- Free of charge
- R Language/Environment specific
- Leadership, Mentorship, Membership, Presenters/Speakers
 & Prioritisation of Underrepresented/Minority Gender

Motivation for #RLadiesSB

- Providing a safe and friendly environment for women to sharpen their R-programming skill.
- Creating a network for women that use R.
- Supporting each other
- Learning from each other

Plan of #RLadiesSB

We aim to:

- have between 4 and 6 meetings per year.
- have mixed difficulty talks.
- keep time of talks below 30 minutes.
- promote exchange and networking between participants.
- be parenting-friendly: Unless otherwise specified, participants are welcome to bring children/toddlers with them, but no childcare is provided. Carers should come prepared to quietly occupy their child(ren).

Just be kind to everyone and have fun:)
